

Internationale Theatre in the Koninklijke Schouwburg, Den Haag
Comédie / Catastrophe / Pas

Three short plays by Samuel Beckett at one evening. Comédie: three urns stand on the stage, from each a head protrudes – a man and two women. The play tells the story of a love triangle and each characters role in it. In Catastrophe we see a director and his assistant rehearsing for the opening of a new modernistic play, consisting entirely of a man standing still on a stage. They discuss his visual features. In Pas we see May, wrapped in tatters, paces back and forth engaging in conversation with the disembodied voice of her mother.
